Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.1, by the Secretary, Major O. F. Duus, to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

This Fund enables a British Service (Army) officer, by subscribing from Rs. 2 to Rs. 4 monthly, to assure, in the event of his death while on the Indian Establishment, immediate payment:—

To his widow ... ... Rs. 5,000 to Rs. 6,000
For each child ... ... ,, 500 to ,, 750

Payments are made immediately on receipt of report of death, irrespective of death occurring in or out of India.

The sum paid to the widow varies with subscription, and the sum for each child varies with age of child. Subscriptions are based on the pay of the officer.

Benefits are payable whether the deceased officer's family is residing in India or not.

It is to the advantage of an officer to join the Fund on his first tour of service in India, as otherwise, on joining it in a subsequent tour he would have to pay subscriptions for any previous tour in the country as a married officer.

The Fund (late Queen's Military Widows' Fund) was established in 1820, to assist families of British Service (Army) officers dying in India, and mainly to enable them to return home without delay.

The Fund is controlled by a Committee consisting of and elected by subscribing officers serving at Army Headquarters, Simla.

For admission and rules apply to:—

The Secretary,
Military Widows' Fund,

Secretary—Brig.-Gen. D. G. PRENDERGAST, C.M.G., 5, York Street, St. James's Square, S.W.1.

This Home (opened in February, 1854) was founded in 1851, in memory of H.R.H. Adolphus Frederick, Duke of Cambridge, K.G., to provide a home for widows of Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Army. They are not to be under 50 years of age, but there is no restriction as to religious persuasion.

Since its opening, 412 widows have been elected. There are 70 widows in the Home in addition to 11 widows receiving pensions. Each inmate has a furnished room, and receives twelve shillings a week and a monthly allowance for coal.

The funded income of the Charity yields only about £4,010 a year, while the estimated annual expenditure is about £5,181.

The Committee make an urgent appeal for additional subscribers, as every year a considerable number are lost through death.

Most Corps, Regiments and Regimental Depots make annual subscriptions; but the Committee have also relied upon retired officers, and it is to them that a special appeal is made.

Every person subscribing half-a-guinea annually is entitled to one vote at each election, and a donation of five guineas ensures one vote at each election throughout life.

The Strength of an Army

If it is true that "an army marches on its stomach" it is as well to keep that vulnerable organ in fit condition. The commissariat may be handled collectively by the Quartermaster's Branch, but good digestion is an individual affair.

Look after your own by the simplest method of all—a glass of water first thing every morning with a dash of ENO's "Fruit Salt."

ENO gently, naturally frees the system of impurities, stimulates the digestive and assimilative processes, keeps health at concert pitch.
